

Pronouns after Prepositions

Español I
Capítulo Tres

Pronouns

- ◆ Pronouns can stand for the same noun yet still have different forms, depending on how they're being used in the sentence.

Both stand for Javier

- ◆ Yo soy Javier. Tengo quince años y me gusta dibujar.

Prepositions

◆ a= to

◆ de= of, from, about

◆ con= with

◆ en= in, on, at

Pronouns after Prepositions

- ◆ You already know subject pronouns and the pronouns used with gustar. Pronouns have a different form when they come after prepositions

Pronouns after Prepositions

Subject	With gustar	After preposition
yo	me	mí
tú	te	ti
usted	le	usted
él			él
ella			ella
nosotros(as)	nos	nosotros(as) vosotros(as)	os	vosotros(as)
ustedes	les	ustedes
ellos			ellos
ellas			ellas

Pronouns after Prepositions

- The pronouns mí and ti combine with con to make the special forms conmigo (with me) and contigo (with you).
- With gustar, the phrase formed by a and a pronoun can be added to a sentence to clarify or emphasize who likes something.

Adds emphasis

Adds emphasis

Clarifies

- ¿A ti te gusta dibujar? A mí no me gusta. A ella le gusta.
